

The Masala Chai Mystery Club Reader's Guide
MJ Soni

1. Who is your favorite character and why?
2. Was there anything in this book that surprised you?
3. Do you have homeowners association stories of your own to tell?
4. Neeti was changed after reading Jane Eyre, as was I. What books made a huge difference in your life and why?
5. How would you describe the relationship between the various characters, Neeti and Myra, Neeti and Peggy, Neeti and Rohit, Peggy and Lawrence, and Thandi and Mandla?
6. Is your worldview more like Neeti's, that is measured and reserved, or like Peggy's, optimistic and bubbly? Has that changed over time?
7. Do you identify in some way with the concept of karma, that is that at some point in another life there will be a tally of all your good and bad deeds and that will determine where you end up in your next life?
8. Why do you read mysteries? Is it because you want justice to be served at the end, or you like solving puzzles, or you like the characters, or all of the above? And what, if anything, about this book appealed to you?
9. What is your perfect summer read?
10. What kind of sequel would you like to see for the Masala Chai Mystery Club? What would you like from them and what kind of personal developments appealed to you? Feel free to let me know on my social media accounts or follow me on my newsletter.
